THANKSGIVING

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

It is fitting that the people of the United States should at stated seasons turn their thoughts gratefully to Almighty God the source of all good and publicly acknowledge their dependence upon His fostering care and their gratitude for His loving kindness. The hearts of our people have been prepared with fraternal sympathy and by the increasing prosperity with which we have been blessed from the very beginning of our national existence to make such an occasion especially appropriate at the present time. Both our spiritual and our material interests are involved and we shall best perform our part in the world's work by duly observing the day which has been appointed by the usage of our country for the offering of praise and prayer to Almighty God.

Now therefore I Grover Cleveland President of the United States of America do hereby set apart Thursday the twenty-fourth day of November next as a day of thanksgiving and prayer to be observed by all the people of the land.

On that day let all engage in the worship of our Heavenly Father in such manner as their consciences may dictate and let us remember the poor in our midst and the unfortunate and by the exercise of charity and kindly benevolence lessen the number of those who with grateful hearts shall thus join in our thanksgiving.

In witness whereof I have set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed at the city of Washington this twenty fifth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty seven and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and twelfth.

GROVER CLEVELAND

By the President

T. F. BAYARD Secretary of State

Proclamation by the Governor

The President of the United States having designated by public proclamation Thursday the 24th day of November next as a day of general thanksgiving to be observed by the people of the United States, I do cordially recommend the people of this Common wealth assemble in their respective places of worship on the day aforesaid and in humble devotion to render thanks to Almighty God for the bounties and mercies with which He has favored us as a people.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State to be affixed this 21st day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty seven and of the Commonwealth the one hundred and twelfth.

JAMES A BEAVER Governor

GENERAL BEAUREGARD one of the gallant soldiers of the war of the rebellion from Pennsylvania died at his home in Philadelphia on Monday last aged 67 years

THE Harrisburg correspondent at this writing letter names several counties which he claims gave Republican majorities at the late election. In fact in every section of the State we may better work done by Republicans than in the old district

THE majority given by Democratic counties all gave splendid Republican majorities at the late election. In fact in every section of the State we may better work done by Republicans than in the old district

THE majorities given on the successful candidates for Common Pleas Judges in the contested districts is compared with the majorities of the State Treasurer show how independently the people generally vote on judiciary candidates. In the Fayette-Greene district Judge Ewing Republican has a majority of 2228 where the Democratic State ticket had 1728 majority. In Schuylkill Judge Bechtel Dem. ran was elected by 2021 majority while the Democratic State ticket had but 857. In Chester where the Republican State ticket had 2444 the majority for Judge Waddell Republican was cut down to 1440 by factional troubles with which it could fairly be said he had very little to do. In Lackawanna county Judge Connolly Democrat received a majority more than his State ticket. Judge Henderson Republican who was beaten in Crawford ten years ago by 45 now beats the same competitor by 2415, while the Republican majority on the State ticket is 1472. Judge Stuntz Republican in Montgomery county, leads his party by 113. In Allegheny where the Republican State ticket has 8153, Judge Slagle Republican, who had an exceptionally strong candidate to oppose in Judge Baily pulled through by 725 while in the McKean Potter district Judge [illegible] ran ahead of his ticket along with his party vote regardless of the combination of a good many elements on his competitor. In only three of the eight districts was there anything like regular party voting. Press

Miss Augusta Ayers has established an art studio in the front room over Hon. Henry Hamlin's banking office. This is one of the most desirable locations in town.

Ray Foote, of Port Allegany, E. C. Gallup's efficient salesman, while scuffling recently with another young man, had the misfortune to break his leg just above the ankle.

The dwelling house occupied by Prof. S. Borton, in Port Allegany, was destroyed by fire on the 5th inst. The professor places his loss at $300, on which there was no insurance.

Thanksgiving will be duly observed by a union service at the M. E. church. Rev. C. R. Smith, of the Baptist church, will preach. Services at 11 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The Belmont toothpick factory will be removed to Olean in the near future. The establishment will employ on the start 25 hands, with the expectation of increasing the working force to 100 within a year.

Owing to the fact that the whole of the first page of to-day's MINER is devoted to Thanksgiving miscellany of a very interesting character, the opening chapters of "A Ship of '49" is deferred until next week.

On Sunday last the forty hours devotion services began at St. Elizabeth's church in this borough. Father Gallihan was assisted in the impressive services by Fathers Coonan, of Bradford, and Corcoran, of Sartwell.

Shifting Bull tried his luck on wild ducks last Sunday to good advantage. After burning considerable powder without getting any game he came to the sensible conclusion that Sunday was not a lucky day for hunting water fowls.

A few days among the Spiritualists at Cassadaga Lakes, last summer, gave Hon. A. E. Richmond, of Meadville, sufficient material to enable him to write a book of 300 pages detailing his researches into the mysteries of spiritualism.

John Carlson has been engaged this week in putting the finishing touch on the stone walk in front of the Protective building. In addition to the stone walk a board plank platform has been extended out even with the curb. Externally the town now boasts of the finest walk in town.

—Our Democratic county contemporaries are just now engaged in a very pretty after-election quarrel. We trust that familiar old saw "between the devils wish to destroy they first make mad" is true to be exemplified in this county.

—The Ladies' Union Aid Society of East Smethport will give an oyster supper next Tuesday night, Nov. 22d, at Esquire Allen's residence. There will also be a "Curiosity Corner," which will no doubt be a great attraction.

—A Kane printer, according to reports from that town, got into an altercation with another man recently, and during the scuffle which ensued snatched his antagonist's nose. The type was told to skip the town, which he did on short notice.

—We are requested by Sheriff Bannon to give notice to attorneys, and others interested once, that the Sheriff's Sales for the December term will have to be published next week, in order that they may receive the legal number of insertions.

—The carpenters have had a real interesting time during the past week for finishing up outside work. But as they have been favored with uncommonly fine weather during the entire fall, up to the present time, they should not complain.

—The Buffalo Express is authority for the statement that the resignation of Gen. Supt. J. T. Gardiner of the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh Railroad is in the hands of President Brown of that company. The resignation is to take effect as soon as his successor is appointed.

—We are indebted to Hon. W. W. Brown for a Report of the Senate Select Committee on Inter-State Commerce, a copy of the United States Fish Commission for 1883, and a copy of the very interesting report of Lieut. Schwatka, who had charge of a military reconnaissance in Alaska in 1883.

—Stickney & Co. have reason to believe in advertising as an agency for building up trade. A few days ago an order was received from Montana territory for a silk dress, from a lady who had seen the goods advertised in this paper. Mr. Woodsworth informs us that he sent the dress pattern by mail the day the order was received.

—Rev. C. R. Smith preached an able and instructive discourse at the Baptist church on Sunday evening last, using as his text the prodigal son's elder brother. The lessons the speaker drew out of the actions of that person on the return of the brother to his father's house were vivid, and carried full of making their impress on the minds of his hearers.

—On Tuesday, Dec. 13, the New York, Lake Erie & W. R. R. will start an excursion train across the continent. From Bradford to San Francisco and return the rate has been fixed at $100.85 for first-class passage. Tickets will be good six months to return on. This will be the opportunity of a life-time to visit the Golden State at the lowest possible rates.

—Butter sells in Bradford at 25 cents a pound, while in Smethport the same article commands 28 cents. Now the question naturally arises why this difference in prices should exist. There certainly should not be a difference of three cents in this simple article within a distance of twenty miles. Our dealers would do well to investigate the matter and see where the fault lies.

—It is said that the officers of the Western New York & Pennsylvania Railroad will be as follows: President, G. Clinton Gardner, Greenfield, Mass.; First Vice President, John B. Probst, Plainfield, N. J.; Secretary, Joseph R. Trimble, Philadelphia; Treasurer, John Donaghy, New York; Directors, Carl Schurz, E. Kossel, Edward L. Owen, Calvin H. Allen, Frederick W. Foote, F. R. Atkins, Isaac N. Seligman, Rivee Gray, New York; G. Clinton Gardner, Greenfield, Mass.; George W. Miller, Buffalo, and E. W. Clark, Philadelphia.

—The Star says that H. A. Carr, who appeared in Bradford on Friday evening last with Frank Davenport, is a Bradford boy and is rapidly gaining success in his chosen profession. He is well-known in this city, having resided here nearly ten years, and in 1883 was graduated from the high school. His father was the late A. H. Carr, the popular veterinary surgeon, who died here a few years ago. Bert first gained glory in local theatricals as a negro man, but two years since he became a man, but two years since he became a dian, but two years since he became a dian, but two years since he became a man, but two years since he became a dian, but two years since he became a man, but two years since he became a dian, but two years since he became a man

WHAT SHALL WE WEAR?

NEW STYLES IN PENDANTS, SCARF PINS, AND CUFF BUTTONS

All About the New Fur Garments, Including Descriptions of Seal Sacques, Coats, Jackets and Wraps—Two Attractive Models for Indoor Toilets.

Two charming outdoor toilets are here presented. One is worn with the short Empire basque and full plain skirt many ladies will prefer, as it will not retain as much dust as the pretty jaunty one of flannel cloth, and the longer trimming the edge of the basque, as also the rows of white corded satin.

INDOOR TOILETTE.

The remaining model gives a pleasing French toilet for afternoon receptions. The cloth is of dark wine color, and is taken to the waist from which the coat was taken to display the rich and white flowered silk. The silk is also used for the front pleated section, edged on the V neck opening. The full sleeves, and upper skirt, as well as seen under the coat of the second fabric. Attention is called to the cut of the bodice and the style of the sleeves.

Fashions in Furs.

Furriers are not to far ahead this season. The popular sacques seen in good furs are a perfected shape, with the stole sides dressed from fitted back, over loose shawl collar, and even length of from forty to forty-five inches. The more novel furs seen in the cost jackets which are fastened with all the precision of tailor made cloth jackets, and in the fur quantities and long sides that appear to supple and flowing as the most graceful wraps for carriage or house. The Fur Review

The fashionable of artificial colors for young and middle-aged women to wear with gowns of any color is made in castor silks. Closely fitted all around single breasted, closed with the fourrure, with a high standing collar and cut sleeves, and its average length is twenty-three or twenty-four inches. This is rounding in front, and when new is usually without trimming.

Silver sleeve mantles of watchan are very stylish short wraps, and are small enough to be worn with the short Empire basque. They are cut in the form of a cape, and are trimmed with a full ruche of the same. The fronts are cut in the form of a cape, and are trimmed with a full ruche of the same.
